Presiding over the opening ceremony, the Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Peter Mbithi said that open days give faculty staff the opportunity to interact with prospective students and the public at large, sharing the University's academic programmes, research outputs and services.

The Open Day brings together University of Nairobi staff and students in addition to key players in the education sector which includes the Kenya Universities and Colleges Central Placement Service (formerly known as JAB), Higher Education Loans Board (HELB). Other partners include Standard Media Group, Kenya Commercial Bank (KCB).
